"When Pastor Heng asked us to share about Mother, my brother stated it so well that he could see a clear change in Mother's life before and after she became a Christian. This is so true indeed! Our times with Mother before she became a Christian are those that we choose to forget or have forgotten.

The joy and peace that only God could put in her heart made her look at life differently. Mother's attitude changed. "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away; behold all things are become new." 2Cor 5:17. I thank God for making this possible and giving me wonderful times with her.

Each one of us is comforted knowing where Mother has gone and our hope is for reunion with her in Heaven. Mother will be missed and fondly remembered by all of us especially her children.

We would like to thank Rev Philip Heng, Rev Ong Hock Khee, Rev Simon Nagarajan, Church Session/Leaders and members of Galilee Church for their loving support and comfort during our time of bereavement. It is a blessing to be part of this community of believers."
